RACESWELL, THOUGH BEATEN BY ROXANE AND OLD ENGLAND.

W. C. Whitney's Futurity Winner Gives Away Weight and shows Promises Form River Pirate Wins With 127 I.bs. - Sister Julet Beats Rochampton.

William C. Whitney's Yankee, by Hanover - Correction, although he did not win, ran to well in a handicap at a mile yesterday that turf critics at Sheepshead Bay were unanimous in the opinion that the coit bids year-olds of the year. Yankee had not been seen on the track since last fall, and as he gave away big lumps of weight to all the other horses in the race according to the scale the layers put up a liberal price against the 1901 Futurity winner. Burns, who had the recent, was instructed not to subject the colt to a gruelling finish, so the jockey did not use his whip at all Yankee, however, showed several bursts of speed, kept well up with the fast pace and finished three lengths whind Old England, who received four pounds from Mr. Whitney's coit and was beaten a head by Roxane in the last jump, the Perblace mare running the mile in 1.39. Roxane re-ceived twenty-three pounds from the Hanover coit. In the betting Dublin and Old England ruled equal favorites at 13 to 5, with strong support for Roxane at fours Yankee went up to eights and Argregor receded a point to when the barrier was spring Old England, with Shaw up, was away in true racehorse style, while Argregor, refusing to break, was left at the post. Old England set a hot gait right up the backstretch, with Yankee never less than a length and a half back and Jubilin a close third. Redform kent and Dublin a close third. Redfern kept Roxane well in check all this time, but at the top of the stretch he let the Perblaze mare have her head. The mare had a head the best of have her head. The mare had a head the best of it when she rushed past the judges. Yankee was gaining on Old England in the last fifty yards and Burns let him work out a quarier of a mile further after he had fashed past the mark. Mr. Whitney was highly pleased with Yankee's performance. It was perfect weather for the sport of kings and a crowd of som persons turned out. Favorites were not in good form, only one of them. J. R.
